

Learning the Strategy Game Plan Liberating Structures for Development

Join us for a skill building workshop on April 5, 2018

8:30 am – 5 pm on Thursday, April 5
Heritage Room in the ACES Library
[1101 South Goodwin Avenue, Urbana, IL 61801]

Nancy White of Full Circles Associates (www.fullcirc.com) will lead us through an introduction and practice of Liberating Structures to unleash, engage and innovate while planning or implementing projects
(www.liberatingstructures.com)

This is dynamic, responsive and engaging strategic planning like you've not experienced before!

During this workshop you will:

- practice 6-8 structures and identify at least one way to incorporate them immediately in your work,
&
- begin to see the shape of dynamic, responsive planning in complex contexts via the Strategy Game Plan canvas.
